RESERVING, HOWEVER, from the operation of this conveyance and unto said party of the first part, hereto, its successors, and assigns, all coal, oil, gas, salt, salt brine and gold and silver ores in, upon and under the lands herein mentioned and hereby conveyed, together with the right to mine, drill, remove and operate for same until March 25, 2034, and not thereafter, and upon said March 25, 2034, the said coal, oil, gas, salt, salt brine and gold and silver ores and all rights thereunder shall become the property of the party of the second part hereto, and its assigns, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that said operations shall be done and carried on in accordance with the following Rules and Regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, viz:-

1. Every person claiming the right to prospect for minerals, oil or gas, or the products thereof, or to mine, drill, develop or operate in or upon lands acquired by the United States under the provisions of the Act of March 1, 1911 (36 Stat., 961), with a reservation to the grantor of mineral rights, including oil and gas, must on demand, exhibit to the Forest Officer in charge, satisfactory written evidence of right or authority from, through, or under the said grantor.

2. In prospecting for, and in mining and removing minerals, oil and gas, and in manufacturing the products thereof, only so much of the surface shall be occupied, used or disturbed as is necessary for this purpose.

3. In underground operations all reasonable and usual precautions shall be made for the support of the surface, and to that end tunnels, shafts, or other workings shall be subject to inspection and examination by the Forest Officers, Mining Experts or Inspectors of the United States.

4. Payment at the usual rates charged in the locality for sales of National Forest timber, and timber products of the same kind or species shall be made to the United States for all timber, undergrowth or young growth, cut, destroyed, or damaged in prospecting, mining, drilling or removing minerals, oil and gas, or in manufacturing products therefrom, and in the location and construction of buildings or works of any kind for use in connection therewith. All slash resulting from cutting or destruction shall be disposed of as directed by the Forest Officer when inflammable in his judgment. No timber, under-growth, or reproduction shall be unnecessarily cut, destroyed, or damaged.

5. All buildings, camps, equipment, and other structures shall be removed from the Forest within six months after the completion or abandonment of the operation, otherwise such buildings, camps, equipment and other structures shall become the property of the United States.

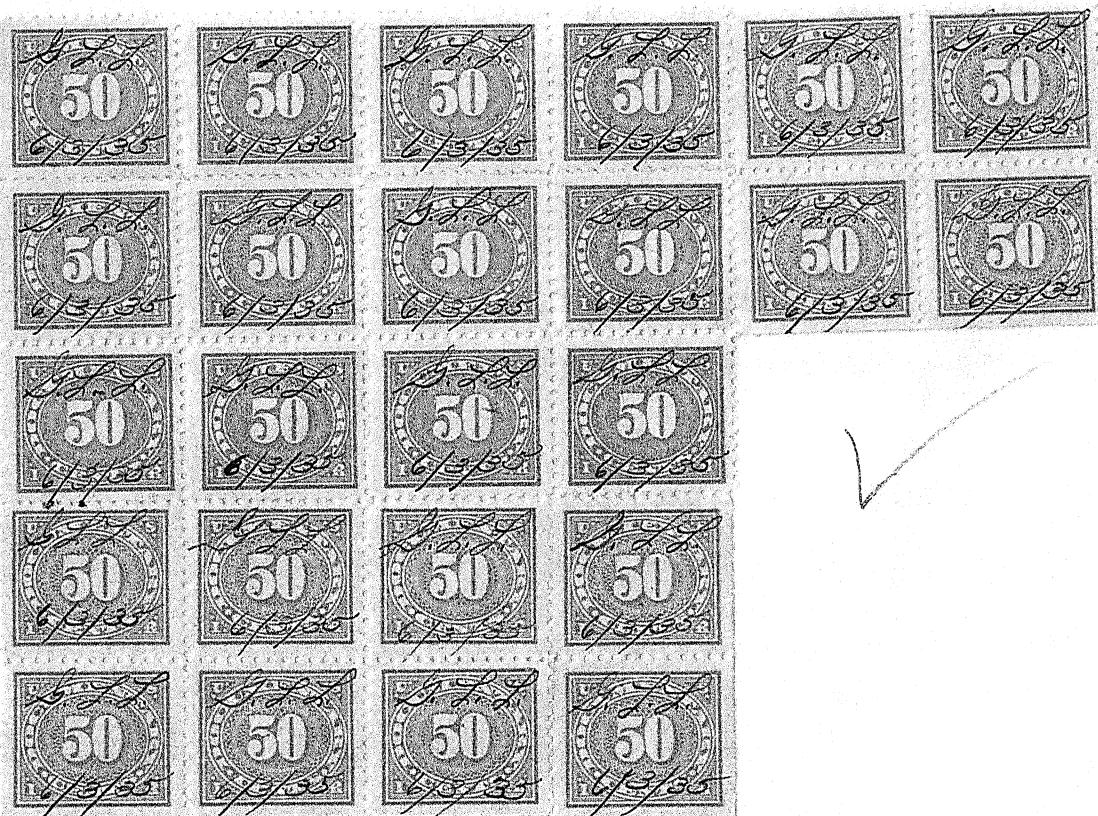

6. All destructible refuse caused by the operations hereunder, which interferes with the administration of the Forest or endangers forest growth shall, within six months after the completion of said operation, be disposed of.

7. While operations are in progress, the operators, contractors, subcontractors, and employees of contractors and subcontractors at work on the National Forest, shall use due diligence in the prevention and suppression of fire, and shall be available for service in the extinguishment and suppression of all fires within the particular locality.

The exercise of the rights reserved by the grantor shall be subject to the provisions of any law, code, regulation, or other expression of public policy then legally effective and applicable, and nothing herein contained shall in any way exempt the holder of such reserved rights from compliance with or conformity to any requirements that otherwise would be applicable.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said premises, as herein described, with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part and to its assigns, FOREVER.

And the said party of the first part, for itself, its successors and assigns, do covenant, grant, bargain, and agree to and with the said party of the second part, and its assigns, that at the time of the ensealing and delivery of these presents, it was well seized of the above granted premises in Fee Simple; that they were free from all encumbrances whatever and that it will, and its successors and assigns, shall forever WARRANT AND DEFEND the same against all lawful claims whatsoever.
